

Re:New DeKalb Board urges citizens to inform themselves on schools referendum

(January 3, 2008) -- At its regular monthly board meeting today, the Board of Directors of Re:New DeKalb unanimously passed the following resolution:

“As an organization dedicated to revitalization of an important local asset, Re:New DeKalb recognizes the importance of continued growth and progress in all aspects of the community. Like a thriving downtown, an excellent school system is essential to the economic vitality and quality of life of DeKalb.

“The Board of Directors of Re:New DeKalb urges all citizens to take advantage of the many resources and opportunities available to educate themselves about the upcoming schools referendum in order to make a well-informed and responsible decision at the polls on February 5.”
